Girls Dress Code

Camp Mesorah is unique in regard to its dress code for girls. As Camp Mesorah is the only co-ed camp with a completely private Girls Campus run by an all female staff, our girls can dress casually while on Girls Campus. Our girls sports fields are secluded from the boys fields. The campers can go down to the girls pool from their bunk wrapped in a towel.

While off Girls Campus, skirts (as long as they reach the knee) and any loose clothing (such as long shorts or sweatpants that reach the knee) may be worn. Sleeve length should be at least a short sleeve and modest necklines are also required while off campus. Some girls activities are located off of Girls Campus as is the dining room and canteen.

Parents, please adhere to the dress code as outlined above. Do not pack clothing for your camper that is too tight, too short or not befitting a bat Torah for off campus. We don't want your daughter or our staff to be in the uncomfortable position of asking your daughter to change because she is dressed inappropriately.

Please note: leggings/jeggings are fine to wear under a skirt, but not as pants.
